

GUÍA PARA EL USUARIO DEL REGISTRO NACIONAL AERONAVE

REGISTRATION OF LEASE, SUB-LEASE, EXCHANGE, LOAN OR OTHER CONTRACT

It is the process by which the transfer of the status of the aircraft operator is accredited, through a lease, sublease, free loan, exchange or other contract and that is practiced in the Registry of Encumbrances and Prohibitions.

The registration of the procedures indicated in the preceding paragraph in the National Aircraft Registry may be requested by the interested party who is empowered to carry out said procedure (owner, operator or a third party, as appropriate), who must present the following information:

- Application to the National Aircraft Registry
- Public Deed or private instrument authorized and notarized before a Public Notary in Chile.
- Payment of the registration fees, in accordance with the amounts indicated in article 39, b) of the Aeronautical Fees and Duties Regulations.

Similarly, if it is a legal entity that will operate the aircraft, it must additionally present the following information:

- Copies authorized before a Notary Public; the deed of incorporation of the company; of the registration of the extract in the respective Commercial Registry and publication of the extract in the Official Gazette.
- Certificate of validity of the company, with an antiquity not exceeding thirty days, counted from when the registration is required.
- Corresponding verification code in the case of companies incorporated under Law No. 20,659 "Your Company in a Day".